Lake County Dental Care, David P. Potts, D.D.S. and Associates

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL/DENTAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE READ AND REVIEW CAREFULLY.

This notice of privacy practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. Protected health information is information about you, including demographic information that may identify you and that related to your past, present, and future physical, dental, or mental health conditions and related health care services.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information:

Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, dentist, our office staff, and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, to pay your health care bills to support the operation of the dentist's/physician's practice, and any other use by law.

Treatment:

We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party.

We will also disclose to a family member, spouse, and adult children any information as necessary for your overall dental care. By signing this document you give permission to share your dental health information with any family member, friend, or other persons to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare and/or with payment of your healthcare.

For example, we would disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to you. Another example would be when there is a need to share your records of information with a specialist or a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician or specialist has the necessary information to diagnose and/or treat you.

Payment:

Your protected health information will be used as needed to obtain payment for your health and dental care services, including your family members or friends. For example, obtaining approval for a dental procedure from an insurance carrier that may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the insurance plan to obtain approval for the procedure.

Healthcare Operations:

We may use or disclose, as needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your dentist's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical/dental students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to dental/hygiene students that see patients at our office. In addition, we may use a sign in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment via mail or by phone.

We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as Required by Law, Public Health Issues as Required by Law, Communicable Diseases, Health Oversight Abuse or Neglect, Food and Drug Administration Requirements, Legal Proceedings, Law Enforcement, Coroners, Funeral Directors, Organ Donation Services, Research, Criminal Activity, Military Activity, National Security, and Workers' Compensation. Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

Your rights:

The following is a statement of your rights with respect to your protected health information.

You have the right to inspect and copy your protected health information under federal law. However, you may not inspect or copy the following records; psychotherapy notes, information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding, and protected health information that is subject to law that prohibits access to protected health information.

You have the right to request a restriction of your protected health information. This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment, or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of your protected health information not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in the Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply in writing.

Your physician/dentist is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. If your physician/dentist believes it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of your protected health information, your protected health information will not be restricted. You then have the right to use another healthcare professional.

You have the right to request to receive confidential communication from us by an alternative means or an alternative location. You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, upon request, even if you have agreed to accept this notice alternatively i.e. electronically.

You may have the right to have your physician/dentist amend your protected health information. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your protected health information.

We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and will inform you by mail of any changes. You then have the right to object or withdraw as provided in this notice.

Complaints:

You may complain to us or to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us. You may file a complaint with us by notifying our privacy contact of your complaint. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

This notice was published and became effective on April 14, 2003.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of and provide individuals with this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. If you have any objections to this form, please ask to speak with our HIPPA compliance Officer in person or by phone at our main phone number. (847)362-6540
